NEW YORK, Mar. 13,-Secretary of War Dickinson, who was to have left today for Panama, via Colon, to inspect the canal work, deferred his departure to settle some differences between the Panama railroad and steamships. In a statement given out here, he declares that he does not believe the United States troops will enter Mexico, and that there is no excuse for intervention on the part of Uncle Sam, at the present time. He accounts for the great army called out by saying that the numbers are required on account of the length of the border to be patrolled.
